

Graduate Grievance Policies and Process Committee

This Committee is charged with examining the current grievance policies in each division and school at UChicago and making recommendations about establishing a University-wide grievance policy and appeal process. They will suggest how to ensure grievance policies and procedures across academic units are sufficiently robust and consistent. Further, the Committee will examine the best campus-wide policies among our peers and recommend how to integrate divisional and school policies with a University-wide grievance policy and appeal process so they are fully responsive to the recommendation of the Committee on Graduate Education.

To offer comments or suggestions to this committee, please complete this form. Note that you are able to submit feedback anonymously.

Committee Members

Faculty

- Paul Cheney, Social Sciences Division
- Donald Eisenstein, Booth School of Business
- Matthew W. Epperson, School of Social Service Administration
- Frances Ferguson, Division of the Humanities
- Todd Henderson, The Law School
- Karin Krause, The Divinity School
- Susan E. Mayer, Harris School of Public Policy
- Jason Merchant, Vice Provost and Division of the Humanities (Chair)
- Tiffany Shaw, Physical Sciences Division
- James Woodruff, Pritzker School of Medicine

Graduate Students

- Levi Bennish, Pritzker School of Molecular Engineering
- Jon Bullock, Division of the Humanities
- Chris Stamper, Biological Sciences Division

Staff

- Bridget Collier, Equal Opportunity Programs, Office of the Provost
- Jarquetta Eggeston, The Graham School
- Beth Niestat, UChicagoGRAD

Faculty members were appointed by the Provost in consultation with their deans, student members were appointed through an application process managed by Graduate Council, and staff members were appointed by the Provost.